

Huntington Beach Academy for the Performing Arts Foundation
PO Box 3825
Huntington Beach, CA 92605
hbapaf.org

Bruce Reynolds
Executive Director

September 1, 2010

Dear Huntington Beach Academy for the Performing Arts Supporter:

The Huntington Beach Academy for the Performing Arts Foundation is launching the Community Campaign in the overall effort supporting vital components of the Academy for the Performing Arts. The purpose of the campaign is to engage more of the community in APA programs that will result in greater attendance, individual donations, and corporate sponsorship of performances. As an essential fund-raising project, the campaign will be integrated into the overall strategy to react quickly to new opportunities, continue with renovation of the historic facilities, and support missions that may require major fixed assets and a long-term view.

Performing arts enriches our lives in multiple and miraculous ways. The highly acclaimed Academy for the Performing Arts teaches 560 emerging and talented artists who annually produce over 30 performances showcased in the recently renovated 650-seat historical theater and entertainment complex on the campus of Huntington Beach High School. Productions encompass nine disciplines taught at the academy. Productions are completely produced and acted by students. APA is a performing arts treasure and truly a gift to our community.

The HBAPA Foundation has worked closely with the Huntington Beach Union High School District to initiate programs that are educationally necessary and maintain high standards. Over the last year, we have worked together to determine the future needs of the APA program. Collaborating with faculty, students, and professionals, we completed a thorough examination that suggested improvements and additions to the program. Renovation of the auditorium and bell tower was a huge achievement and created an exceptional teaching and performance stage for APA. We want to build upon this tremendous platform in a manner that benefits the new learning and performance environment.

The Academy for the Performing Arts is educating tomorrow's artistic leaders and building on its base of excellence. HBAPA Foundation has the ability to bring together faculty, students, alumni, staff, and the surrounding community to celebrate the great institution of the Academy for the Performing Arts. Your generosity helps develop and impact the lives of outstanding APA students. Thank you for being a loyal supporter of our program. You are an important member of our team!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Bruce Reynolds". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.