

IT WAS FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY... THE ANNUAL FUNDRAISER FOR MMET

November 1 & 2
Two Performances: Thurs & Fri, 6pm
First Christian Church of Huntington Beach

In this fourth installment of a five-year series celebrating the 50th anniversary of the Beatles, we will look at every song they wrote and recorded in 1968. As the era of Sgt. Pepper and psychedelia came to a close, the Beatles followed a new Guru to India and wrote a bumper crop of new material. Coming back to the studio in June, they spent the rest of 1968 working tirelessly, together and separately, to create what is now commonly known as the White Album. During this time of blazing creativity and global social upheaval, the band started to splinter in different directions. We will take you through that process, day by day, session by session, in what will be the biggest single set of songs MMET has ever taken on in one show.

There are two performances of this double-length show. Freshman/Sophomore "Hits of 1967" preshow at 6:00 and Beatles show at 7:30
