RETROFEST
So you really want a 90s show? FINE. WHATEVER

April 30 – May 2
Four Performances: Thur April 30 @ 7pm
Fri May 1 @ 7pm & Sat May 2 @ 2pm & 7pm
Huntington Beach Union High School District
Historic Auditorium and Bell Tower

Like the moon landing, the Kennedy assassination, or the Beatles on Ed Sullivan, most musicians alive in the fall of 1991 can recall the first time they heard or saw ‘Smells Like Teen Spirit’. Everyone instantly knew that the game had changed. Suddenly, everything was Seattle, Starbucks, flannel, and grunge music. But 90’s music was so much more than grunge, nu-metal, and refried punk rock. There was a ribbon of musical beauty and fun underneath all the sludge. In the truest spirit of snarky 90’s ‘whatever-ness’, we’ll give you the big musical moments of the decade, while expose you to other delightful gems that may have escaped your notice the first time around. Coffee isn’t allowed in the theatre so you may have to pre-game this one.
